

You don't have to be an architect to be an AIA member. Become a Student Affiliate Member of AIA Central Illinois.

Are you an undergraduate or post-graduate student of an architecture school? Or secondary school student with an interest in the architecture profession? Then this membership category is right for you. This membership category was created to promote communication among all architects and future architects. Individuals must not be otherwise eligible for membership in AIA Central Illinois.

Why Should You Become a Student Affiliate Member of AIA Central Illinois?

- Show your support for the profession
- Have access to information and insight not available elsewhere
- Participate in networking opportunities exclusively for members
- Help shape architecture and the built environment through legislation and policy making
- Be connected to an influential organization
- Help promote and sustain industry standards and best practices
- Enable research, joint educational opportunities, and cooperative public programs on subjects of mutual interest
- Join with colleagues to accomplish more collectively than we can individually

Member Benefits

Student Affiliate Member - $45 annually (AIAS Members $25)

Student Affiliate members receive the same basic benefits from AIA Central Illinois as architect and associate members (except voting). This means they share AIA Central Illinois resources, programs, services, and activities. "Share" is the key word – student members will learn from architects as much as they will inform them about their own viewpoint. We believe that by sharing your ideas and creative energies through participation in Chapter activities, you will increase your understanding of the architectural profession, and the AIA Central Illinois will benefit from your special knowledge and expertise.

As a Student Affiliate Member in AIA Central Illinois, you'll enjoy:

- Networking opportunities (invitation to AIA Central Illinois programs and events at member prices)
- Educational programs and tours developed to increase your knowledge and to interact with the local architecture and design community.
- Listing in the ArchiPages, an annual directory of architectural firms, members, consultants, products and services in Illinois. For a student, the ArchiPages is a wonderful resource guide to various potential employers throughout the state of Illinois.
- Receive a complimentary copy of ArchiPages, which is also sent to all AIA Illinois members
- Inclusion on the AIA Central Illinois mailing list for all general mailings
- Opportunity to participate on committees and event planning
- A membership certificate suitable for framing
